

Miss Coalville Stampede Rodeo Queen serves as a proud ambassador for the Coalville Stampede. She represents the prestige of her title with professionalism, confidence, and respect throughout her reign. As the face of the rodeo, she plays a key role in promoting the stampede's mission to celebrate the rich agricultural heritage, entertainment, and community spirit. She makes appearances throughout the events and beyond at media events, parades, fundraisers, autograph signings, community gatherings, meet-and-greets, and rodeos. She connects with diverse audiences—including families, rodeo enthusiasts, and even skeptics—demonstrating grace, authenticity, and strong communication skills. Her deep understanding of rodeo and the Stampede, along with her ability to represent them credibly and with integrity, helps elevate their reputations. She embodies sportsmanship, high moral character, and a commitment to the humane and ethical treatment of animals.
